

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.

Bila-Haut Occultum Lapidem

Cotes du Roussillon Villages Latour de France 2007
(means "little hidden gem")

The varietal blend of 50% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 20% Carignan, gives this wine richness and power. The long warm growing season combined with the cooling "mistral" winds in the evenings help produce concentrated flavors and deep dark colors and aromas.

Rated 93 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...smells of violets, toasted walnuts, cassis, licorice, rosemary, roasted meats, and sea breeze.

.....Fascinating suggestions of brine and iodine, resinous southern French herbs and exotic spices, inform the deeply fruited as well as richly carnal palate, where a caressing polish and tender, ultra-refined tannins make themselves subtly felt.