The Estate

Paolo Manzone and his wife Luisella own and operate the estate located in Serralunga d’Alba and they own and farm 14 hectares of vineyards. The land and vineyards have been handed down from father to son for generations and the production ranges from Dolcetto d’Alba, to Barbera d’Alba, to Nebbiolo d’Alba to Barolo and even Arneis. The estate consists of hand tended vines with full regard to the traditional methods realizing the quality is made by the vines. Manzone is also a member of The Green Experience which is unique to the Piedmont region centered in the Langhe to protect and enhance biodiversity, sustainability, and to be ecologically respectful. No chemicals are used in the agriculture and priorities are given to agronomic solutions, respect for the soil, use of floral and herbal essences along with respect and honesty towards consumers insured by traceability and external certification. The winery and house is located entirely in the Cru Meriame di Serralunga having belonged to Luisella’s family for generations. To be more precise it is located on the Western Slopes between Baudana and Lazzarito Crus in a small amphitheater facing South, South West in front of Castiglione Falletto.

Wine Making

Hand harvested grapes are where the first selections are made and are then carried to the winery in 20Kg bins to insure they arrive fully intact. A correct vinification and slow refinement is varietal dependent with the goal to preserve as much of the character as possible. The vineyard is 400 meters in elevation facing South East and this wine is made from the gentle pressing of whole clusters at low temperatures in stainless steel tanks to preserve the fruit and eliminate oxidation. Battonage is used during fermentation on the fine lees to enhance complexity.

Tasting Notes

This wine is straw yellow with beautiful green reflections. Delicate notes of green apple on the nose. Fresh nectarine and peach notes deliver a harmonious balance of acid & sweet with a touch of crisp minerality on the very long and pleasant finish.
