

Voerzio Martini Barolo 'La Serra' 2016

94
Points

“From a vineyard site in La Morra, this shows soft and silky renderings with delicate fruit and berry tones that move smoothly over to tar, white licorice and tarry road paving. This wine shows a classic set of Nebbiolo aromas, all backed by the more graceful tannic structure that often comes with wines from La Morra. These qualities put the wine in a solid medium-term drinking window.”
