89
Points

"It's easy to get behind this cheerful and well-priced red. The wine opens to a medium-dark appearance with pretty layers of dark fruit and soft spice. It is shaped by the sun and shows extra sweetness on the close, and the oak aging adds a savory side with cured tobacco. It goes into 225-liter French oak and matures for 15 months. Distant aromas of crushed flower and smoky barbecue."
